Dear Requester:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on March 14, 2017, for information pertaining to this following:

File Number 20171200: Any available log of appeals submitted to this agency or the agency tasked with processing Freedom of Information Act appeal for this division, from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2016, to include the following items: the request number associated with the FOIA in question, the appeal number assigned to the appeal, the description of the subject matter addressed by the request, the division or office of initial receipt, the date on which the appeal was received, the date on which the appeal was closed, and the determination or final disposition status of the appeal;

File Number 20171201: All appeal letters and opinion letters associated with appeals for which the determination was to reverse, in whole or in part, the decision of the initial request agency, from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2016;

File Number 20171202: All appeal letters and opinion letters associated with appeals for which the determination was to remand the request to the appropriate agency, from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2016;

File Number 20171203: All appeal letters and opinion letters associated with appeals for which the determination was to affirm the decision of the initial agency, from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2016;

File Number 20171204: Any intrusive or guiding materials provided to and/or utilized by employees of this department's Freedom of Information Act office, to include any manuals, procedural materials, reference guides, checklists, training materials, flow charts, directives, memorandums, legal decisions, presentations, or similar material used in the process of an appeal by this office or the office tasked to process FOIA appeals to this office. Any guiding materials used for the presentation of an appeal package should be considered responsive to, though not the entirety of, this element of this request; and File Number 20171205: The name and contact information for the appropriate appeal authority to whom appeals for this agency should be directed.

As it pertains to File Number 20171204, the Secret Service conducted a reasonable search for responsive records. It appears from a review of Secret Service main indices, that there are no responsive records pertaining to the information you requested.

In regard to File Numbers 20171200, 20171201, 20171202, 20171203 and 20171205, enclosed are documents responsive to your requests. In an effort to provide you with the greatest degree of access authorized by law, we have considered this material under the FOIA statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552. Pursuant to this Act, exemptions have been applied where deemed appropriate. The exemptions cited are marked below.

In addition, approximately 87 page(s) were released, and approximately 0 page(s) were withheld in their entirety. An enclosure to this letter explains the exemptions in more detail.

If this box is checked, deletions were made pursuant to the exemptions indicated below.

The following checked item(s) also apply to your request:

Fees: In the processing of these FOIA requests, no fees are being assessed.

Other:

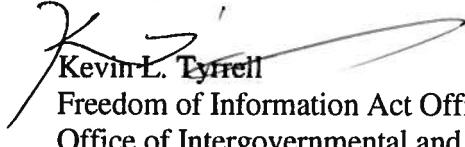

If you deem our decision an adverse determination, you may exercise your appeal rights. Should you wish to file an administrative appeal, your appeal should be made in writing and received within ninety (90) days of the date of this letter, by writing to: Freedom of Information Appeal, Deputy Director, U.S. Secret Service, Communications Center, 245 Murray Lane, S.W., Building T-5, Washington, D.C. 20223. If you choose to file an administrative appeal, please explain the basis of your appeal and reference the case number listed above.

Additionally, you have the right to seek dispute resolution services from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) which mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Please note that contacting the Secret Service's FOIA Program and/or OGIS is not an alternative to filing an administrative appeal and does not stop the 90-day appeal clock. You may contact OGIS at: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. You may also reach OGIS via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov, telephone at 202-741-5770/toll free at (877) 684-6448, or facsimile at (202) 741-5769.

If you need any further assistance, or would like to discuss any aspect of your request, please contact our FOIA Public Liaison Kevin Tyrrell, at (202) 406-6370. Alternatively, you may send an e-mail to foia@ussd.dhs.gov.

FOIA/PA File Numbers 20171200 – 20171205 are assigned to your requests. Please refer to these file numbers in all future communication with this office.

Sincerely,

Kevin L. Tyrrell

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), if that statute: (A)(i) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (ii) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and (B) is established after the date of enactment of the OPEN FOIA Act of 2009;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency; provided that the deliberative process privilege shall not apply to records created 25 years or more before the date on which the records were requested;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;

Re: Administrative Appeal of FOIA File Number 20140502

Dear Mr. Kovacich:

Reference is made to your appeal letters to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service), one dated April 1, 2015, and received on April 14, 2015, and one dated May 26, 2015, and received on June 15, 2015, submitted on behalf of your client, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) regarding the above-referenced file.

The Secret Service has concluded that the documents responsive to your client's request are maintained in the Secret Service Criminal Investigation Information System, DHS/USSS-001. This system is exempt from the access provisions of the Privacy Act pursuant to exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. §§ 552a(j)(2), (k)(1), (k)(2), and (k)(3). See 73 Fed. Reg. 77729 and 77813. Therefore, no information is available to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) under the Privacy Act.

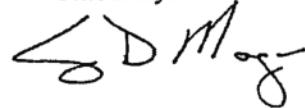

As no records are available to your client under the Privacy Act, these same records were processed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). In the appeal review, it has been determined that additional responsive information may be released to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). Copies of the pages containing this information are enclosed. Some information continues, however, to be withheld under the FOIA.

The records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C), certain information is being withheld as information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

Information is also being withheld under (b)(3) since disclosure of this information is specifically exempted from disclosure by other statutes. In addition, certain information is being withheld pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, section 552(b)(5) as inter-agency or intra-agency information which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency.

Under federal law we are required to advise you of your right to file a civil action or of further appeal in this matter. As you have already filed suit in the federal District of Montana (case number CV (b)(6);(b) (7)(C)) regarding the above referenced request, there is no further right to appeal this decision outside of your pending civil action.

Sincerely,

Craig D. Magaw
Deputy Director

Re: Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Appeal - File Number 20130612

Dear Mr. (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

Reference is made to your letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) appealing the determination of Acting Special Agent in Charge Julie A. Ferrell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding the above referenced file.

Your request was first considered under the Privacy Act. The Secret Service has concluded that the documents responsive to your request are maintained in the Secret Service Criminal Investigative Information System, DHS/USSS-001. This system is exempt from the access and amendment provisions of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 USC §§ 555a (j)(2) and (k)(2). Therefore, no information is available to you under the Privacy Act.

As no records are available to you under the Privacy Act, these same records were processed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Based on our review of the responsive records, it has been determined that additional information from these records may be released to you. Copies of the pages containing this information are enclosed. However, some information continues to be withheld under the FOIA.

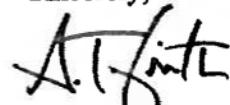

The records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C), some information is being withheld since disclosure of this information could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Information is also being withheld under section (b)(7)(E), as information the disclosure of which would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations, or could disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions the disclosure of which could risk circumvention of the law.

Information also continues to be withheld under section (b)(5) as inter-agency or intra-agency material that would not be available to a party in litigation with the Secret Service. Additionally, information is being withheld under section (b)(3) as information specifically exempted from disclosure by statute.

We also note that some information that originated with another Agency has been forwarded to that Agency for their processing and direct response to you.

Any denial on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Reference is made to your recent appeal letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above-referenced appeal. Through your letter, you appeal the decision of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim Campbell, Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (FOI/PA) Officer, regarding the above referenced request.

The Secret Service has concluded that the documents responsive to your request are maintained in the Secret Service Criminal Investigation Information System, DHS/USSS-001. This system is exempt from the access and amendment provision of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552 (j)(2), (k)(1), (k)(2), and (k)(3). See Fed. Reg. 77729. Therefore, no records are available to you under the Privacy Act.

As no records are available to you under the Privacy Act, these same records were processed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). In the appeal review, it has been determined that additional information may be released to you. Copies of the documents containing this information are enclosed. Some information continues to be withheld, however, under the FOIA.

The Secret Service records in question were compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections 552(b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), certain information is being withheld as information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

Any denial on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear Mr. Joseph:

Reference is made to your appeal letter dated June 11, 2015, regarding the above referenced access request. Through your letter you appeal the determination of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding this request.

The search for records responsive to your request has been reviewed. Based on this review, it has been determined that a reasonable search was conducted for responsive records. Furthermore, under my direction, an additional search for responsive records was conducted and no records responsive to your Freedom of Information and Privacy Act request were located.

Under federal law we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal, including a finding of no record, is subject to judicial review in the District Court where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Reference is made to your recent letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above referenced file. Through your letter, you appeal the determination of Special Agent in Charge Kim E. Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (FOIPA) Officer, regarding the above referenced file.

You appear to be seeking records that pertain to L. Ron Hubbard and the Church of Scientology as they relate to an investigation stemming from an incident in which an endorsement from then Vice President Richard Nixon was sought. As a result of your appeal, an additional search for responsive records was conducted. This search revealed no such responsive records.

Under federal law, we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal, including a finding of no records, is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear Mr. Musgrave;

Reference is made to your letter dated August 14, 2015, and received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on September 8, 2015. In your letter, you appeal the July 22, 2015 decision of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim E. Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Act (FOI/PA) Officer, regarding your Freedom of Information Act request referenced above.

The photos of the quadcopter drone that you requested were inadvertently left out of the July 22, 2015 response. Enclosed please find the requested photos.

The incident reports from the drone crash that you requested, however, contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. SAIC Campbell denied your Freedom of Information Act request pursuant to Title 5 of the United States Code, Section 552(b)(7)(A), as seeking material related to an ongoing enforcement investigation. Upon further review of this matter, it has been determined that exemption (b)(7)(A) is still applicable to the incident reports from the drone crash. Citation of 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(7)(A) should not be construed as the only exemption which may be available under the Freedom of Information Act. Therefore, your appeal is denied as to that portion of your request.

Under federal law we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Musgrave:

Reference is made to your email dated February 17, 2015, that you sent to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service), appealing the decision of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, finding that your Freedom of Information Act request fell under the commercial requester fee category.

The records pertinent to your fee waiver appeal have been reviewed. Based on your representation that this request is not for commercial purposes, I have determined that your Freedom of Information Act request falls into the category of records requested for non-commercial use. Your request, however, remains subject to the normal fees described in 6 C.F.R., § 5.11(c).

Under federal law, we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to review in the U.S. District Court in the district where you reside, have a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are kept, or the District of Columbia.

Dear Mr. [Redacted] (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Reference is made to your appeal letter dated April 8, 2015, to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above-referenced appeal. Through your letter, you appeal the decision of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim Campbell, Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (FOI/PA) Officer, regarding the above referenced request.

SAIC Campbell denied your FOI/PA request pursuant to title 5 of the United States Code, section 552(b)(7)(A), as seeking material related to an ongoing enforcement investigation. Upon further review of this matter, it has been determined that exemption (b)(7)(A) is still applicable as enforcement proceedings remain ongoing.

Any denial on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

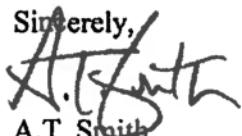

Reference is made to your letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above referenced file. Through your letter, you appeal the determination made by Julie Ferrell, Acting Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, that certain records responsive to your request are exempt from release under the Privacy Act and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The Secret Service has concluded that the audio, video, or graphic charts from your polygraph examination that you requested are maintained in the Secret Service Non-Criminal Investigation Information System, DHS/USSS-003. This system is exempt from the access and amendment provisions of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), (k)(5), and (k)(6). Therefore, no records are available to you under the Privacy Act.

As no records are available to you under the Privacy Act, these same records were processed under the FOIA. On appeal, it has been determined that this information should continue to be withheld under the FOIA.

These records are being withheld under section (b)(2) which covers internal personnel practices of the Agency in conjunction with section (b)(7)(E) since disclosure of that information would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or could disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions the disclosure of which could risk circumvention of the law.

Under federal law we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear Mr. Mulvey:

Reference is made to your letter dated October 23, 2015, appealing the decision of Kim Campbell, U. S. Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding your request for expedited processing of your Freedom of Information Act requests referenced above.

Your request for expedited processing has again been denied. Your appeal included a statement and exhibits in support of your contention that your requests qualified for expedited processing under 6 CFR § 5.5 due to "an urgency to inform the public of actual or alleged Federal government activity." Id. at (d)(1)(ii). These materials, however, are insufficient to establish your entitlement to expedition.

Although the exhibits attached to your request establish significant public interest in the conduct of the Federal government employees described in your requests, they do not establish that your requests are a matter of current exigency or that the consequences of a delayed response would compromise a significant recognized interest. You have failed to identify any imminent action that would cause the requested material to lose its value if produced using the normal FOIA process. Your requests, on the other hand, are therefore predicated on "the public's right to know," which is not in dispute, but which does not by itself satisfy the requirements for expedited processing of your requests.

Any decision on appeal, including a denial of expedited processing, is subject to review in the U.S. District Court in the district where you reside, have a principal place of business, in which the agency records are kept, or in the District of Columbia.

Reference is made to your letters sent to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above referenced file. In your letters, you appear to appeal the determination of Special Agent in Charge Kim Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding the above referenced file.

The records pertinent to your appeal have been reviewed. Based on this review, it has been determined that 173 pages appear to be responsive to your request for information related to you or your family-owned entities. Six pages have been withheld in full. Copies of the remaining 167 pages are enclosed. However, some information on these 167 pages is being withheld under the Freedom of Information Act.

The records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections 552 (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C), information is being withheld since disclosure of this information could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

Any denial on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

The records responsive to your request have been reviewed. The Secret Service has concluded that the documents responsive to your request are maintained in the Secret Service Criminal Investigative Information System, DHS/USSS-001. This system is exempt from the access and amendment provisions of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), and (k)(2). See 73 Fed. Reg. 77729. Therefore, no records are available to you under the Privacy Act.

As no records are available to you under the Privacy Act, these same records were processed under the FOIA. In the appeal review, it has been determined these records may be released to you. A copy of these records are enclosed. However, some information is being withheld from these documents under the FOIA.

The records in question contains information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, section 552(b)(7)(D), some information is being withheld since disclosure of this information could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source and/or is information furnished by a confidential source. Information is also being withheld under (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), as information the disclosure of which could result in an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

Dear Mr. [(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)]

Reference is made to your letter dated November 6, 2015, appealing the determination of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim E. Campbell, United States Secret Service (Secret Service) Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding your request for information pertaining to an itemized list of products and services provided by Digital Receiver Technology to the Secret Service under the 2009 contract Procurement ID SS001200309DTSS030058.

The Secret Service has conducted an additional search for records responsive to your request. This search yielded no record of any 2009 contract with Procurement ID SS001200309DTSS030058, but did yield two responsive documents related to products and services provided by Digital Receiver Technology for Fiscal Year 2009. These documents are enclosed with this letter. Some information, however, is being withheld under the Freedom of Information Act.

The records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, sections 552 (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C), certain information within these responsive documents is being withheld as information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Additionally, pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, section 552 (b)(4), certain information is being withheld as privileged commercial or financial information.

Reference is made to your e-mail dated February 23, 2016, and received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on the same date. Through this email you are seeking to appeal the "ruling on your requester status" regarding your Freedom of Information Act requests. In a letter dated February 22, 2016, this office informed you that your request for a fee waiver was being held in abeyance pending the quantification of responsive records and that no decision was being made on your fee waiver request at that time.

Since no decision has been made regarding your fee waiver request, there is no adverse determination that is subject to appeal. Once the Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Office determines the volume of responsive documents, and whether a fee waiver should be granted, you will be informed of what fees, if any, you will be charged.

Dear Ms. Simon:

Reference is made to your appeal letter dated August 4, 2015, and received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on August 10, 2015, appealing the determination made by Special Agent in Charge Kim Campbell, Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts Officer, regarding the above referenced files.

Regarding file number 20150596, you clarified that this request was for the title and salary of the position held by A.T. Smith prior to his current position with the Secret Service. Although the FOIA is not required to answer questions, please be advised that Mr. Smith's prior position was Deputy Director with a salary of 181,500.

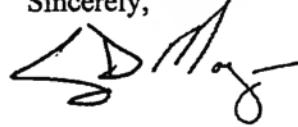

Regarding file numbers 20150733(a), (b), (d) and (e), you appeal the determination that the production of responsive documents is barred by a previous agreement. Reference is made to the attached agreement dated July 3, 2013, which was signed by Ms. Litman, in which she agreed to "not file or direct another to file a FOIA request related to the retirement benefits of any current or former employee(s) of the Secret Service." These requests ask for information clearly barred by this agreement; therefore, no responsive documents will be produced and these files will be closed.

Regarding file numbers 20150728 and 20150729, you appeal the extent and reasonableness of the search conducted. As a result, a second search for responsive documents was conducted. No responsive documents were found in this second search. Consequently, these files will be closed.

Regarding file numbers 20150589-20150594, 20150726, 20150730, 20150732 and 20150734 (we note that your appeal letter incorrectly lists file number 20150724 which is not a file number assigned to a request from Ms. Litman) as they relate to Greg Stokes. Our review of these requests confirmed that the information you are seeking is one of the subjects of your complaint in Litman v. U.S Department of Homeland Security, et al. and, consequently, will only be addressed in the litigation.

Dear Ms. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Reference is made to your letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) dated June 13, 2015, and received by the Secret Service on June 24, 2015. Through your letter, you appeal the determination of Special Agent in Charge Kim Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (FOI/PA) Officer, regarding the above referenced file.

As a result of your appeal, an additional search for responsive records was conducted. During this search, responsive documents were located. A copy of these documents is enclosed. However, some information is being withheld under the FOIA.

The Secret Service records in question contain information compiled for law enforcement purposes. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, Section 552 (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), some information is being withheld since disclosure of the information would result in an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

In addition, please be advised that in 1966, the U.S. Secret Service transferred the official Secret Service case file on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to the National Archives. Access to the file can be requested by writing to the National Archives Freedom of Information Act Officer, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 3110, College Park, MD 20740-6001.

Under federal law, we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

Dear Ms. Gresko:

Reference is made to your letter to the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) regarding the above referenced file. Through your letter, you appeal the decision made by Special Agent in Charge Kim E. Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (FOI/PA) Officer, finding that all records responsive to your request are exempt from release under the Freedom of Information Act.

Our review of the documents responsive to your request has confirmed that the material you are seeking is related to an ongoing law enforcement proceeding, as judicial action is still pending in this matter. Accordingly, the Secret Service will continue to withhold information under Title 5 of the United States Code, Section 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with these enforcement proceedings. The citation of the above exemption is not to be construed as the only exemption which may apply under the FOIA.

Under federal law we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to judicial review by the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.
